INCLUSIVE

Inclusive play emphasizes breaking down physical and social barriers that might prevent children with disabilities or differences from fully enjoying and benefiting from playtime. This concept encourages the design of playgrounds, games, and activities that cater to a wide range of abilities and needs, ensuring that everyone can participate, socialize, learn, and have fun together.

The goal of inclusive play is to promote empathy, understanding, and positive social interactions among children of different backgrounds and abilities. It helps to build a more inclusive society where everyone can feel valued, respected, and included.
